

Bihar And Orissa Trade Union Regulations, 1928]

1. These regulations may be called the Bihar and Orissa Trade Unions Regulations, 1928.

<sup>2</sup>[1A. These regulations shall apply to all unions whose objects are not confined to, and whose head office is situated in the State of Bihar.

2. In these regulations—

(a) "The Act" means the Indian Trade Unions Act, 1926.

(b) "Form" means a form appended to these regulations.

(c) "Section" means a section of the Act.

3. Every application of registration of a trade union shall be made in Form A.

4. The register of trade unions referred to in section 8 shall be maintained in Form B.

5. The certificate of registration issued by the Registrar under section 9 shall be in Form C.

6. (1) The Registrar on receiving an application for the withdrawal or cancellation of registration shall before granting the application, satisfy himself that the withdrawal or cancellation was approved by a general meeting of the trade union, or if it was not so approved that it has the approval of the majority of the members of the trade union. For the purpose he may call for such further particulars as he may deem necessary and may examine any officer of the union.

(2) The Registrar shall, before withdrawing or cancelling the certificate of registration of a trade union under clause (b) of section 10, cause to be served a notice in Form D on the trade union through its Secretary in person or by registered post.

(3) The certificate of registration issued to a trade union under regulation 5 shall be surrendered by the Secretary of the union when the Registrar withdraws or cancels such certificate under clause (a) or clause (b) of section 10.

1. Vide Notification No. 2575-XL-19-Com. dated 19.11.1928.

2. Vide notification no. 162-XL-35/45. L. dated 19.1.1945.

7. (1) The Registrar on receipt of a notice of removal of the registered office to another State shall forward to the Registrar of the State to which the head office of the trade union has been transferred, a copy of all the entries contained in the register prescribed by regulation 4 and a copy of the rules of the union with all amendments thereto.

(2) The Registrar of the State to which the head office of the trade union has been transferred shall thereupon enter in his register the particulars relating to the trade union and shall certify the fact of such registration on the certificate issued under regulation 5. The Secretary of the union shall present the certificate to the Registrar for this purpose.

(3) The procedure prescribed in clause (2) above shall be followed in respect of a trade union whose head office has been transferred to this State :

<sup>1</sup>[Provided that, if the name of the trade union, the head office of which has been transferred to this province, is identical with that by which any other existing trade union has been registered or, in the opinion of the Registrar, so nearly resembles such name as to be likely to deceive the public or the members of either trade union the Registrar shall require the trade union applying for the transfer of its head office to this State to alter its name, and shall refuse to certify the fact of registration referred to in clause (2) above until such alteration has been made.

8. When the Registrar registers a change of name under sub-section (3) of section 25 he shall certify under his signature at the foot of the certificate issued under regulation 5, that the new name has been registered. The Secretary shall present the certificate to the Registrar for this purpose.

9. On receipt of a notice of amalgamation under sub-section (1) of section 25, if the head office of the amalgamated trade union is in the State of Bihar and Orissa, the Registrar shall consult the Registrars of trade unions in other provinces so amalgamating if any, before registering the amalgamated trade union under sub-section (4) of the said section.

When the amalgamated trade union is registered under sub-section (4) of the said section it shall be assigned a number in the register in Form B and the Registrar shall issue a new certificate in Form C therefor. He shall also note the fact of amalgamation against the entries, if any, relating to the trade unions so amalgamated in the register in Form B and send intimation of the registration of the amalgamated union to the Registrars of the trade unions so amalgamated in other State, if any.

10. The fee payable for the registration of a trade union shall be Rs. 5.

11. (1) On receiving a copy of an alteration made in the rules of a trade union under section 28 (3), the Registrar, unless he has reason to believe that the alteration has not been made in the manner provided by the rules of the trade union, shall register the alteration in the register prescribed by regulation 4 and shall notify the fact that he has done so to the Secretary of the trade union.

(2) The fee payable for registration of alterations of rules shall be Rs. 1 for each set of alterations made simultaneously.

12. Any appeal made under section 11 (1) of the Act must be filed within sixty days of the date on which the Registrar passed the order against which the appeal is made.

13. (1) Along with the notice of dissolution under sub-section (1) of section 27 the certificate issued under regulation 5 shall be surrendered. When the Registrar registers the dissolution he shall send an intimation of the fact of such registration under his signature to the Secretary of the trade union.

(2) Where it is necessary for the Registrar, under sub-section (2) of section 27, to distribute the funds of a trade union which has been dissolved, he shall divide the funds in proportion to the amounts contributed by the members on roll at the time of dissolution by way of subscription to the several funds of the trade union during their membership. In the event of the death of a member of a trade union subsequent to the date of its dissolution but prior to the distribution of funds, the Registrar shall pay the sum payable to such member to his legal representative.

14. The annual return to be furnished under section 21 shall be submitted [in duplicate] to the Registrar by the 31st day of July in each year and shall be in Form E.

15. (1) Save as provided in sub-clauses (2), (3), (4) and (5) of this regulation, the annual audit of the accounts of any registered trade union shall be conducted by an auditor authorised to audit the accounts of companies under section 144 (1) of the Indian Companies Act, 1913.

(2) Where the membership of a trade union did not at any time during the financial year exceed 2,500 the annual audit of the accounts may be conducted—

(a) by an examiner of local fund accounts, or

(b) by any local fund auditor appointed by the local Government in any audit or accounts department, is in receipt of a pension of not less than Rs. 200 per mensem.

(3) Where the membership of a trade union did not at any time during the financial year exceed 750, the annual audit of accounts may be conducted—

(a) by any two persons holding office as magistrates or judges or members of any municipal council, district board, or legislative body.

(b) by any person who, having held an appointment under Government in any audit or accounts department, is in receipt of a pension from Government of not less than Rs. 75 a month, or

(c) by any auditor appointed to conduct the audit of any co-operative societies by Government or by the Registrar of co-operative Societies or by any State co-operative organization recognized by Government for this purpose.

(4) Where the membership of trade union did not at any time during the financial year exceed 250, the annual audit of the accounts may be conducted by any two members of the union.

(5) Where the trade union is a federation of union, and the number of unions affiliated to it at any time during the financial year did not exceed 50, 15, 5 respectively, the audit of the accounts of the federation may be conducted as if it had not at any time during the year had a membership of more than 2,500, 750, 250 respectively.

16. Notwithstanding anything contained in regulation 15, no person who at any time during the year was entrusted with any part of the funds or securities belonging to the trade union shall be eligible to audit the accounts of the union.

17. The auditor or auditors appointed in accordance with the regulation shall be given access to all the books of the trade union and shall verify the annual return with the accounts and vouchers relating thereto and shall thereafter sign the auditor's declaration appended to Form E, indicating separately on that form under his signature or their signatures a statement showing in what respect he or they find the return to be incorrect, unvouched or not in accordance with this Act. The particulars given in this statement shall indicate—

(a) every payment which appears to be unauthorised by the rules of the trade union, or contrary to the provision of the Act.

(b) The amount of any deficiency or loss which appears to have been incurred by negligence or misconduct of any person.

(c) the amount of any sum which ought to have been but is not brought to account by any person.

18. The audit of the political fund of a registered trade union shall be carried out along with the audit of the general account of the trade union and by the same auditor or auditors.

19. (1) The register of trade unions maintained in accordance with regulation 4 shall be open to inspection by any person on payment of a fee of fifty Paise.

(2) Any documents in the possession of the Registrar received from a registered trade union may be inspected by any member of that union on payment of a fee of fifty Paise, for each document inspected.
